ELECTRONIC ENGINEERS COMPUTER SCIENTISTS PHYSICISTS

Experiencing all the sensations of flying and operating a high-performance tactical aircraft without leaving the ground... engineering the electronics to guide a missile a few feet from a target hundreds of miles away...these are only two of the exciting projects you can be involved in at Goodyear Aerospace. High-technology opportunities presently exist for career-oriented persons in the following specialties:

FLIGHT SIMULATORS AND TRAINERS

RELIABILITY ENGINEERING

DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY

- Array and Parallel Processors
- Computer Architecture
- Mini- and Micro-Computers
- Logic Design
- Hardware
- Software

GUIDANCE, NAVIGATION, AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

- Airborne Radar Systems
- Digital Image Processing

If you have applicable experience in any of these areas, please send your résumé to:

INTERNATIONAL DEFENSE MARKETING

A Client of mine has me out looking for 2 or 3 experienced international marketing people to be based in the U.S. and traveling to Europe, Middle East and the Pacific. Products include ordnance, electronics and ATE. If you have experience in any of these areas and want to improve your lot, please send resume or call Duane Olesen person-to-person collect.

I am also seeking program management and engineering talent for nationwide Defense Industry Clients. Security Clearance Required
